NEW PATENT SHAFT COUPLING!
W. E. COOPER

HAS PURCHASED THE RIGHT FOR THIS County of the above Patent, and will hereafter use it in the construction of all the Vehicles manufactured at his extensive

Carriage Factory,
Corner of Second and Morrison Streets.

He respectfully refers to the following
CARD.

Having examined the New Patent Shaft Coupling, invented by H. R. Hoagland, we feel pleasure in informing the public that in our opinion it is the safest and best method of connecting shafts or tongues to all vehicles that has ever been used.

It fastens without bolt or screw, and is therefore, easily and speedily separated. It rests on Gutta Percha so as to be entirely free from the rattling sound which so often disturbs restless horses. It is easily changed so that the shafts or tongue may be detached in an instant, and is convenient, safe and secure.

It is easy to change to this style of coupling any buggy or other vehicle now in use, and with small expense. We have come to the conclusion to use this new invention ourselves and recommend its use in all cases. We consider it far superior to the Brewster Patent, heretofore considered the best in use.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO SEPTEMBER 7.

New York News.

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—The large stable of Deforest, on Staten Island, with three valuable horses, and four tenement houses and three dwellings, were burned yesterday. Loss, thirty thousand dollars.

It is ascertained that the six young men supposed to have been drowned yesterday from a yacht which was found capsized, were all rescued by a fishing boat, after clinging to the yacht nearly an hour.

The Fashion Course running race, four mile heats, between Eckerson's Flora McIver, Moore's Privateer, and Weldon's Alderman, was won by Flora, after an interesting contest, Privateer being a favorite against the field, two to one, after running the second heat. The best time was 7 35½.

ALBANY, Sept. 6.—There is much activity among those interested in the Susquehanna railroad election to-morrow. Fish and others of his party here are of the impression that the Ramsey interest will carry the day.

Gov. Hoffman has appointed delegates to the Southern Convention at Louisville, October 12th. Among those appointed are Horatio Seymour, Horace Greeley, Wm. C. Bryant and other distinguished citizens.

RALEIGH, Sept. 6.—Ex-Governor Worth died last night.

Shipwreck and Loss of Life.

NORFOLK, Sept. 6.—Part of the crew of the British bark Ezra, which went ashore on Body's Island have arrived. They report that in attempting to reach shore in small boat, Capt. Hart and his wife, with the Chief Mate and a boy and two seamen were drowned. The vessel is probably a total loss.

Philadelphia Dispatch.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept 6.—At noon to-day a party of ruffians went into Kenian's liquor saloon, corner of Front and Arch streets, and shot James J. Brooks, revenue officer, through the lungs, probably mortally wounding him. The store was under seizure at the time, and the assault is supposed to have been in revenge of Brooks' successful efforts as a Government detective in ferreting out whisky frauds.

A northwest storm has prevailed since this afternoon. The fall of rain is not copious, but it is hoped it will affect the Schuylkill and put the water works in good condition. The fire steamer John Fuller of New York has arrived and will go to work to endeavor to force water from the river into Fairmount Works.

Death of Secretary Rawlins—Revenue Matters.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—Secretary Rawlins died at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

Commissioner Delano has issued orders that all persons having claims or business with his office shall be required to communicate the same in writing addressed to the Solicitor's bureau through the mails. No person whatever will be allowed an interview with the clerks or employes, except by permission of the Commissioner or Solicitor.

Powder Explosions.

PORTLAND, ME., Sept. 6.—A keg of patent powder exploded at Sebalo Lake on Friday, blowing three men some distance. The men are still alive, but two it is feared are fatally injured. The accident was caused by knocking out the bung with a stick which had been used in some nitro-glycerine.

Casualties in St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 6.—The coroner of this city held 78 inquests last month. The principal causes of deaths were: sunstroke, 21; drowning, 13, and suicide, 9.

Contested Election in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 6.—The argument was commenced to-day in the great contested election cases before the Court of Common Pleas, involving all the officers of the municipal government who received certificates last October. The evidence taken fills 4,000 pages. The argument will occupy all this week.

Kentucky Matters.

LOUISVILLE, Sept. 6.—Three companies of militia, that have been doing duty in the neighborhood of Lebanon, Ky., for the past four or five weeks, returned this afternoon. They have been relieved by a company of thirty-five or forty mounted men, from Midway.

LEXINGTON, Sept. 6.—The attendance at the races is large, and the weather fine. The produce stakes for three-year olds, mile and repeat, had 21 entries, six of which started. The stakes were won by Herzog; time, 1:45¼, 1:45. The sweepstakes for two-year old filleys, mile dash, had eight entries, six of which started. It was won by Nagg in 1:45½.

Terrible Fire in a Coal Mine—Two Hundred Men Perished

SARATOGA, Sept. 6.—There is great excitement in consequence of the burning of a coal breaker, at Avondale mine, Plymouth, about twenty miles south of this city. Two hundred men and boys were in the mine, and the shaft, which is the only means of escape, is choked by forty feet of burning coal. Ventilation is totally stopped, and the great fears are that some if not all will be suffocated.

PLYMOUTH, Sept. 6.—A fire broke out this morning in a flue at the bottom of Steuben shaft, owned by Delaware, Lackawanna and Western of this place. In a short time the whole breaker and out buildings were in flames and the hoisting apparatus, the only avenue of escape for miners, was destroyed. All efforts to stay the flames were unavailing. The whole structure fell, filling up the shaft. Over two hundred men are in the shaft and have no communication out, with no chance for air. The only way of getting air into the shaft was through the main opening, and that was filled with burning timbers and debris. It is feared that the whole number are suffocated by smoke or oppressed for want of air. The fire departments of Scranton, Wilksbarre and Kingston are playing streams down the shaft for the purpose of quenching the fire so that rubbish can be cleared out and the condition of the men be ascertained. It will probably take till to-morrow morning before tidings can be reached from them. The scenes are heartrending. Families are congregating in great numbers, and the miners from all parts of the country are at work. The merchants, and in fact the whole population of the town, have turned out to assist. The loss by the fire will amount to about $100,000, partially insured. All the physicians in the country have been summoned to attend when the condition of the men is ascertained. The affair has cast a gloom over the whole community, and business is almost entirely suspended. The miners only resumed work to-day from a suspension of about three months. Among the men in the mines is Hughest, Superintendent.

SCRANTON, Sept. 6.—The latest information from the Avondale mine states that the shaft was cleared and two men went down and proceeded seventy yards to a closed gangway door, which they could not force open. They found three men outside of the sulphurous smoke, which was pouring through the doors. No signs of life were discovered. It is feared they are all dead.

PLYMOUTH, Sept. 6.—After 10 P. M. the rubbish from the bottom of the shaft was cleared away and two miners descended in a bucket. They sent word up to send down a pick and shovel to clear the doors with. The bucket brought up two men. They started down with tools. As they started, the men at the bottom requested them to hurry. On their reaching the bottom, both men were found dead. No hopes are entertained for the men in the shaft. All are believed to have perished. The black damp is very bad here.

Fire at Richmond.

RICHMOND, Sept. 6.—A fire broke out to-night on Carry street, near 14th, completely destroying the lumber yard and several factories. Mass & Harvey's liquor and grocery store is partially destroyed and several other buildings. The loss will probably reach $200,000.

The Cotton Crop.

MEMPHIS, Sept. 6.—News from along the Arkansas and White rivers says the cotton crop is splendid. The bales open finely. Along the Mississippi for 200 miles below here, the drouth has cut the crop off.

Delegates to Grand Lodge Odd Fellows En-route.

The Grand Scribe, Farnsworth, and Grand Representatives of Louisiana, Texas, Arkansas, Mississippi, Kentucky, Georgia and Tennessee, passed through here this evening en route to San Francisco, to attend the meeting of the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows.

Cincinnati Dispatch

CINCINNATI, Sept. 6.—Robert Dodge, dry goods merchant, committed suicide last night by taking morphine.

In the School Board to-night a resolution was offered to put the Bible and sacred song books out of the public schools in order to remove the objections of the Catholics against them, also to appoint a committee to confer with the Catholic Church authorities as to the terms upon which the Catholics will send their children to the public schools.

Gen. Young returned to the city Saturday, bringing the papers fully exonerating him from the charges preferred against him. He enters on his duties as Supervisor of Internal Revenue for Southern Ohio immediately.

Condition of Senator Fessenden.

PORTLAND, Me., Sept. 6.—Senator Fessenden remains in the same condition as last night.

The Late Secretary of War.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—Attorney-General Hoar, General Sheridan and others sent telegrams which were read to Secretary Rawlins before his death, expressing respect and affection for his dangerous condition. Secretary Rawlins, with deep emotion, expressed gratitude at these manifestations of affection and interest. He said: "If the love of my friends could do it, I would soon be a hearty man."

There were present at the time of the death of Secretary Rawlins, Secretaries Cox and Robeson, Postmaster-General Cresswell, General Giles A. Smith, General John E. Smith, Commissioner Parker, James Rawlins, brother of the deceased, Gen. Howard, Mr. Chadwick, Surgeon-General Barnes, Drs. Bliss and Peterson.

The body was embalmed soon after his death and dressed in the full uniform of a Major-General. Gen. Grant arrived by a special train an hour after his death. He expressed regret that owing to non-delivery of telegrams at Saratoga he was prevented from sooner starting for Washington. The President sent a despatch to Gen. Rawlins' wife, at Danbury, Conn., informing her of his death and expressing the highest esteem for the deceased.

The funeral of Secretary Rawlins will take place on Thursday. The remains will be taken to the Congressional Burying Ground. An informal Cabinet meeting was held to mature arrangements for the funeral, which are however subject to modification, suggestive by the widow of the late Secretary, or such action as may be taken by his own State, Illinois. The body will be removed to the War Department, to lie in state. A catafalque is being prepared for the purpose. The public Departments will be closed to-day.

Catastrophe in the Pennsylvania Coal Mine.

SCRANTON, Sept. 6.—The fire broke out at 10 o'clock. All experts agree that it must have been communicated from the ventilator of the furnace to the wood work at the bottom of the shaft, which is 327 feet below the surface. The flames rushed with great violence up the shaft and broke out in the engine room at the top. The buildings covering the mouth of the shaft were 100 feet high and 200 long. The wood was as dry as tinder, and they were almost instantly enveloped in flames. It was impossible to reach the summit of the shaft to help the men below. Two men lost their lives attempting to get down the shaft to make furter investigations. No further attempts will be made to go down till a small engine is rigged. The loss by the burning of the mines and works is estimated at from $50,000 to $100,000, but not counting loss by stoppage. The mine had been involved in a strike for three months, but resumed work on Thursday and was producing 450 tons of coal per day. All who have been down say it is very hot, and loud calls fail to elicit an answer. The only hope for the two hundred men in the mine is that they may have shut themselves in a remote part of the works entirely away from the draft. Several hundred men with tools were taken from here this evening with the idea of driving a gangaway from the neighborhood into the Avondale works, but it must be solid rock cuttings. This would probably not relieve the imprisoned men in time. The distance to be cut is variously estimated at from twenty to sixty feet, and the time required from two to three days.

Senator Grimes Resigned—Miscellaneous

CHICAGO, Sept. 7.—Senator Grimes of Iowa, has sent in his resignation to Gov. Merrill, to take effect December 15th.

A New York special says that Bigelow and Geo. Wilkes are the principal candidates for the Chinese Mission. The friends of each are very confident. Bigelow has almost entirely changed the editorial staff of the Times. Others of the old firm are expected to resign this week.

The Englishman who paddled his canoe up the Rhine, down the Danube and Volga, has started on a similar journey from New York to New Orleans. He goes by river and canal to Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington, thence to Pittsburg and down the Ohio and Mississippi rivers.

The Tribune's Washington special says Gen. Spinner, commenting on the renewed complaint against the Treasury Department from San Francisco states that although he consented to transfer five millions, those who appeared to be anxious to have the money would only take two millions and the balance remains uncalled for. Drafts on the Sub Treasury in San Francisco have been so arranged that the position of its funds could be ascertained here. This appears to have stopped the cry for greater transfers.

The sixth annual session of the International Cigar Makers' Union, met at Chicago yesterday. Thirty one delegates were present. The day was spent in appointing commissioners and hearing the reports of delegates.

Liquor Dealer's Convention.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—The liquor dealers of this city have addressed a circular to dealers throughout the country proposing to hold a National Convention here in September, requesting delegates to be sent. The circular says the temperance convention just closed at Chicago, has, among its objects, the adoption of a prohibitory law in this district as an experiment which, if successful, will affect the trade of the whole country. The proposed convention is to influence Congress to defeat such measures.

Gen. Sheridan to Act as Secretary of War

It is stated that General Sheridan will act as Secretary of War ad interim. The name of G. W. Dodge, present Chief Engineer of the Union Pacific Railroad at Promontory, is mentioned in connection with the succession of the office.

Senator Fessenden's Condition.

CHICAGO, Aug. 7.—A Washington private dispatch says Senator Fessenden's symptoms are most favorable. Some hopes are entertained of his recovery

Eulogies on Secretary Rawlins—Georgia Cotton Crop.

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—All the papers have eulogistic obituaries on Secretary Rawlins.

A letter from Georgia states that the damage to the cotton crop by the late heat is irreparable. The yield of the State has been diminished fully one half. The effect upon the fortunes of planters will be disastrous, though, probably, the higher prices caused by the abridged supply, will, in a great degree, compensate for the apparent loss.

Cuban Affairs

HAVANA, Sept. 5.—Foreign residents of the city, principally the Germans, are enlisting in the volunteer reserved battalion, when the present volunteers take the field, and have tendered their services to the Governor General, who accepted the offer.

Eight hundred insurgents surprised four hundred volunteers and repulsed them. Gen. Puelia with 400 troops marched to the assistance of the volunteers, but the insurgents declined to fight.

On the 16th of August the insurgents several thousand strong, commanded by Quesada and Cespedes, attacked Las Tunas. The fight lasted nine hours, the insurgents losing two hundred killed. The garrison of Las Tunas was composed of 400 men, of whom 100 were killed or wounded. The final result is not stated. Gen Boragan arrived from Las Tunas a day afterwards with a convoy. He had a skirmish along the road and sustained a slight loss.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—A special dated London says important advices relative to the actual existing condition of the relations between the Viceroy of Egypt and the Sultan are received. He promptly telegraphed to Constantinople his assent to conditions, military, financial and tributary, which were embraced and insisted on in the Sultan's letter, this evening, and his determination to leave no excuse for any hostile action on the part of the Sultan. The Kedive is expected to arrive in Constantinople on Monday, when he will have an official interview with the Sultan. French Minister at Constantinople telegraphed the main feature of the Sultan's letter to the Kedive before he reached Alexandria, and at the same time urgently advised him to submit to its terms.

A London special says the German Catholic Hierarchial Convention, in session at Tunda, has adopted a line of action or platform to be offered by Prelates in the Ecumenical Council. It is temperate and independent in tone, and yet in a spirit of complete submission to the call of the Holy See. The Austrian Bishops did not attend. They assemble in Convention at Salsurdy.

A private cable dispatch dated London, 2 o'clock, says there is a panic in Germany on account of bad news from France.

LONDON, Sept. 6.—The weather is unsettled this morning.

The Telegraph reviews, chronologically, Mrs. Stowe's articles on Lord and Lady Byron, and says the subject is too painful to discuss. It regards the publication as the result of indiscretion on the part of Mrs. Stowe and her publishers.

A later dispatch states that Kedive has left Alexandria for Constantinople.

The Times in an editorial on the demands of labor, says the rapid spread of the fallacies of Trade's Unionists is deserving of more than mere attention. The unions will flourish as institutions for mutual assurance and organization, and for supporting the bargains of individual laborers. They serve useful purposes, but not in molesting freedom in the way which the State cannot tolerate. It is essential not to abolish Unions, but to convince their members of the errors they have embraced.

The Star has an article on the National Labor Convention at Philadelphia, and thinks the trans-Atlantic labor movement deserves to be watched and studied by the enlightened people of every country.

ARMAGH, Sept. 6.—The work of organizing the Church is progressing satisfactorily. A requisition has been made to ask to convene a lay delegation.

The Bourse is excited. Rentes opened at seven francs and 35 centimes, a heavy decline since last Saturday night. To-day the Commission, in order to allay the excitement, publicly announced the health of the Emperor to be satisfactory.

The La Presse reports that the Emperor kept his bed yesterday, and received the Empress and Prince Imperial only during the day, but it adds that the condition of the Emperor is not considered worse.

The La Republique says the Emperor did not go out yesterday and his physician counsels him to avoid fatigue.

The Journal Officielle this morning declares the Emperor's condition not alarming.

The Senate to-day adopted the Senatus Consultum by a vote of 132 to 3.

This evening the Bourse closed firmer. Rentes advanced to 7 francs and 25 centimes.

PARIS, Sept. 6.—The Emperor is better to-night.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 6.—The Kedive has telegraphed his assent to the Vizier's second letter relative to the negotiation of loans without the consent of the Sublime Porte.

DUBLIN, Sept. 6.—Cardinal Cullen has ordered prayer and thanksgiving in the Catholic Church for the termination of strife and religious ascendancy in Ireland.

Gladstone, in a note just published, says the pardon of the Fenians will be under consideration in the Cabinet.

The Archbishops of Armagh and Dublin have agreed to convene a lay Conference, which will meet here in October.

MADRID, Sept. 6.—A proposition has been made to reduce the hierarchy of Spain to five Archbishops and 32 Bishops.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 7.—A fight occurred last night in a boarding house, during which Bishop McNulty, a runner for the house, attacked Horace Fuller, bar-tender, with a knife, cutting him severely over the left eye, upon which they clinched and fell down. Fuller drew a revolver, fired shots at McNulty, one entering the right breast inflicting a painful and dangerous wound. Both parties are under arrest, Fuller for assault with intent to murder and McNulty for assault and battery.

The dead body of a young respectably dressed man identified by some to be James C...pl...l, was found this morning on the east of 3d Rock Ridge at Potrero across Isley's creek. His brains were blown out, and a Sharp's revolver lying at his side with some empty chambers, indicates death by his own hand.

Saturday afternoon a little girl named Fellipe Martinez, residing on Hinckley street, was badly scalded, accidentally, with boiling water. She lingered until yesterday about 5 P. M.

Yesterday the Board of Supervisors completed the re count of the ballots of the 1st Ward, and on comparing the tally lists of the election with those kept by the clerks of the Board, it was found that McCoppin had lost one vote. The Board having determined to work on re-count only in day time, further counting is suspended till 2 P. M. to-day, when they will commence on ballots cast in the 2d Ward. Before 1 P. M. to-day the Board finished re-count for this Ward and it was found that as between published returns and figures by their own clerks McCoppin had gained 1 vote; Selling lost none; Freeman gained 138; Hanna gained 2; Winson lost 2. The Board took a recess before they compared their recount with the official figures from that Ward. The Board is sitting in Committee of the Whole, and this afternoon they decided that they had no right to open sealed tally lists from various Wards, but that it must be done when the Committee rises to report their count of ballots to the Board. They commenced on the 3d Ward ballots at 1½ o'clock this afternoon.

The steamer Pelican, hence Saturday for Eureka, broke her shaft and returned to port yesterday. Passengers and freight have been transferred to the steamer Pacific, which sails to-morrow morning.

A Well-Set Table.

The way in which the ordinary meals of a family are served may seem a small matter to many, and when young housekeepers find their cares increasing, and they look about them for some means of lightening their burdens, they begin oftentimes by slighting some of the very essentials of a well-kept home.

There are few of us who do not appreciate our meals more when neatly and tastefully served. Bright glass and silver, setting off clean table-linen, are certainly good appetizers.

There is true economy in a well-set table, though it might not appear so on the first thought.

Suppose a "wash-day dinner" to consist of the remains of Sunday's roast, either cold or warmed over with the gravy, plain boiled potatoes, and bread and butter, with a cup of tea. There is nothing about such a meal to awaken one's enthusiasm certainly, and it can be made positively uninviting by being carelessly thrown, as it were, upon a table covered with a dirty cloth, which should have been in the wash-tub. Table-cloths, no matter how common, if starched and smoothly ironed, will keep clean a week in most families, provided a crum-brush or scraper is used, and the cloth neatly folded in its creases after every meal.

If any housekeeper, whose time is too much occupied to allow her personally to superintend the setting of the table, thinks it would be impossible to teach the generality of servant girls to take such care of the table-linen, she is mistaken. By trying the experiment a few times, she can convince any hired girl that it is an actual saving of washing. The penalty of careless crumpling of the cloth in removing it, should be its speedy dismissal to the wash, which proceeding no girl would care to have constantly repeated through her own heedlessness.

A few pretty dishes, which are not really expensive, will set off the plainest table.

For butter, there are those lovely green plates representing leaves; their effect particularly in summer, is charming. And there are pretty, red Bohemian, or its imitation, for glasses for spoons, etc. Any one's taste can fill out a list of ornamental dishes within the reach of moderate means. But if any additional expenditure for dishes is not to be thought of, make the best of what is at hand.

Don't tolerate a dirty castor; wash and refill its bottles and polish the plated part, and you will be surprised to see the improvement it makes in the appearance of your table.

The salt-cellars should be freshly filled and carefully smoothed over with a knife, and the salt-spoons laid across the top.

It is not such a trouble as many seem to think to have bright, clean knives at every meal. A few rubs with a cork dipped in brick-dust will remove all stains. If it requires too much time and strength to thoroughly clean silver every week, it will show its gratitude for a generous bath of hot soap-suds, with a little ammonia added to the water.

Of course, all your dishes must be clean and bright to perfect your table arrangements, and it is necessary to place them tastefully.

It takes very little longer to set a table well than it does to do it carelessly, and the extra trouble finds ample compensation in the added charms. The next time it is necessary for you to have such a "wash-day dinner" as I have described, I pray you serve it with some of the embellishments I have named, and you will probably find that your hungry husband will forget to growl at the "abominable pot-luck" of the day, and pronounce your dinner "capital."—Hearth and Home.

The Moving of a Five-Story Hotel in Boston.

[From the B—— Traveler, August 21.]

One of the most difficult undertakings connected with the widening of Tremont street, was ... to be the moving back of Hotel P—— that large brick building on the corner of Tremont and Boylston streets. For many days past the ... arrangements have ... and to-day ... and the building started on its course ... The entire ... been laid bare, the foundations slightly ... and ... numbers of small iron rollers ... them; and they roll ... will move upon a stout foundation wall, with straps of iron bound to its top. The moving force is some sixty or seventy jack screws, turned by human power, and capable of moving ten hundred thousand tons, which is the weight of the building.

It is expected, however, that only eighty per cent. of this force will be required to overcome the friction, and, when once started, that fifty per cent. will be found sufficient. Last evening the perfection of the arrangements was tested, and the immense structure moved nearly an inch; but the power was found inadequate, and this morning more screws were added. About eight o'clock all was in readiness to put it in motion in earnest. Some fourteen workmen were detailed to work the screws, and others were stationed at the points in the ... to watch the rollers, and for other purposes. At the sound of a whistle from the Superintendent, one turn of the screw was given, and then the effect noted. This whistle was again sounded, another turn made, and then came another pause. This was continued for about half and hour, and at the end of that time the building was moved an inch and little over a half.

The rollers have to be arranged every two inches that the building is moved, and about nine o'clock a stop was made for that purpose. All seems working well, and no doubt of the success of the undertaking exists in the minds of those connected with it. The occupants of the building are engaged in their usual avocations. Large crowds have watched the operations of the workmen all the forenoon, a squad of police are on hand to maintain order and keep citizens from straying into dangerous latitude.

At noon to-day the building had been moved nineteen inches, the length of the screws. If these are replaced in season, it is expected that the above distance will be increased to three feet by nightfall.

Miss Mary ——, daughter of a respectable and wealthy family of Glen Cove, Long Island, eloped a few days ago with her mother's coachman. The loving couple drove in a farm wagon to another town, and were made man and wife. The bride at once returned home and announced her change of condition, which produced a scene. Shortly after her arrival, and while the family were grieving over what they considered their disgrace, the coachman appeared, fully prepared to kneel and be forgiven. That he did not kneel is to be attributed to his rapid ejection from the house. He is represented to be an ignorant fellow, possessed of no unusual share of good looks. All endeavors to separate the bride from her husband proved unavailing, and her family were forced to buy the man off. It is understood that $10,000 has been offered him to relinquish all claim to his bride and leave country. It is expected that he will accept the offer.

Bulwer says that poverty is only an idea in nine cases out of ten. Some men with ten thousand dollars a year suffer more for want of means than others with three hundred. The reason is, the richer man has artificial wants. His income is ten thousand, and he suffers enough for being dunned for unpaid debts to kill a sensative man. A man who earns a dollar a day, and does not run in debt, is the happier of the two. Very few people who have never been rich will believe this, but it is as true as God's word. There are thousands and thousands of people in the world with princely incomes who never know a moment's peace, because they live above their means. There is really more happiness in the world among the working people than among those who are called rich.

COMPRESSED FLOUR.—The Emperor Napoleon III, it is stated, having observed the great space occupied by flour in sacks, directed that experiments should be made to test the practicability of packing the rations of the French soldiers in smaller bulks, so as to be rendered more easy of transportation. These experiments proved successful, and the flour is subjected to powerful hydraulic pressure, and after having been packed in small tin cases is served out to the different regiments. The flour is also protected from the dampness of the atmosphere, and thus is less liable to become mouldy.

THE EQUALIZER!

Treating Disease by Vacuum!

DR. H. A. BODMAN

HAVING PURCHASED HADFIELD'S EQUALIZER and the Patent Right for Multnomah county, would respectfully inform his friends and the public generally that he is prepared to treat successfully those Chronic cases on whom all other means of cure have failed.

Having used this Instrument in connection with his former practice for about three months, he is satisfied that it will accomplish all that is claimed for it in curing Chronic Disease. He does not believe in the system of advertising cures, but any number of such may be seen on record at his office, consisting principally of Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Paralysis, Curvature of the Spine Nervous Debility, Dyspepsia, Weak Chests, Asthma, Narrow Chests, Weak Lungs, Weak Backs, Weak Stiff and Rheumatic Limbs, Sciatica, Spasms, Epilepsy, Palsy, St. Vitus Dance, Prolapsus Uteri, Obstructed Menstruation, with all their concomitant Diseases, Impotency and all kinds of weakness of the Generative Organs. Spermatorrhea confidently cured in from four to six weeks without medicine.

He uses other remedies when necessary, but the Equalizer ... the cure without the aid of any medicines whatever. It brings a greater supply of blood and nutrition to all weak parts, thus creating new life and tone, and health, and strength in those parts. It breaks up congestion and inflammation by equalizing the circulation ... every part of the system.

Give it a fair trial and you will be satisfied with the results. It has been examined by thousands of physicians of all Schools of Medicine, and there has not been one dissenting voice to the correctness of the principle; all acknowledge that it fills a vacuum in the Science of Medicine.

ENDORSEMENTS.

OLYMPIA, W. T., March 27, 1869.

C. A. WHITE, Esq.—Dear Sir: Having examined your original map, embracing that portion of Washington Territory west of the Cascade Range, I desire to add my testimony to its value. Having been engaged for a number of years in the surveys from Cape Flattery to the Head of Puget Sound, I have examined this portion of your map more critically than others, and I take pleasure in vouching for its general correctness.

This map will fill a want that has long been felt, not only among the residents of this Territory, but others, who are desirous of obtaining information of this portion of the "Far West," and I trust that we shall soon see it in a form suitable for general distribution.

JAS. S. LAWSON,
Asst. U. S. C. S.

We endorse the annexed opinion of Jas. S. Lawson, Esq., and will add that Mr. Chas. A. White is a practical surveyor, and has had access to the township maps in the two Land Offices in this Territory, as also the Coast Survey charts; and we can vouch for his map of Washington Territory, west of the Cascade Range of Mountains, as being correct, and the only good map of the same territory that has been made.

HIRAM SMITH'S

Ophthalmic Panacea

IS WITHOUT DOUBT THE MOST WONDERFUL EYE HEALER that has yet been discovered.

It CURES the most stubborn and hopeless cases of CHRONIC INFLAMMATIONS GRANULATED LIDS, FILMS, &c., as has been sufficiently demonstrated during the few months to which it has been brought to public notice. The proprietor is so fully convinced of its INFALIBILITY that he WARRANTS A CURE OR REFUNDS THE MONEY. It can do the eyes no harm and a trial of it is therefore without injury or any risk to the patient if a cure is not effected.

It has cured cases of FIVE, SIX, NINE, FIFTEEN and even EIGHTEEN YEARS' standing in Harrisburg, Linn county, Oregon, and its vicinity, to which the following persons will bear witness:

E. B. MOORE, NATHANIEL ...
A. L. WALLACE, G. R. WARD,
Mrs. MONTGOMERY, JOHN M. HOLT,
W. D. PORTER, ROB'T RAMSEY,

And others in that vicinity.

Persons afflicted with the distressing ... diseased eyes are advised to give this remedy a fair trial, on the NO CURE, NO PAY and NO INJURY plan.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE!

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES!

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from poison absorbed into the system. Look at their pallid, bloated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid state ... thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering from any of these horrible life-destroying maladies, ... they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private disease his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important for those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many ... doctors who infest all cities, publishing ... curing all diseases in a few days, imposing on the public by using the names of eminent physicians in Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and strictly inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequences of ... solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is ... by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited ..., producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes; pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, feted breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief is not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will forfeit One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of his complaint by any of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are under any of these fearful maladies, should not fail ... sacred responsibility, resting upon them nor ... obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give his patients a written instrument, binding him ... radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating ... case, length of time the disease has continued, ... medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in a registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and ... who, with bogus sworn-to certificates, dupe the ... Some of the self-styled doctors, whose names are found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen, ... lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office ... etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory ... will not find their Medical Institutes in it, but you will find their former occupations in it. Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to do ... tion is to make enquiry—it will cost you ... may save you many regrets; for, as advertising physicians, in eight cases out of ten, are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, private letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who call at his office of his ability to treat diseases he proposes to cure.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 623 Kearney Street, near Commercial, (Private Entrance on ...), San Francisco. Post Office Box 252.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 252 ON THE LETTER. Consultations FREE.

Correspondents will please inform Dr. Gibbon that they read his advertisement in the Daily Oregonian.

EMIGRATION FROM GERMANY.—In connection with re[illegible] upon the operations of the Baltimore International Emigrant Union, of which a notice appeared in our yesterday morning, the San Francisco Bulletin of [illegible] date said: "The North German Lloyds Steam[ship] Company, a little more than twelve months ago, [began] running two large screw steamers between [Bremen] and Baltimore, and brought over 250 to 300 German and Swiss emigrants a month. This company has four boats, the Ohio, the Baltic, the Leipsic and the [illegible], and they are transporting 2,000 to 3,000 immi[grants] per month. Next spring they will increase the [number] of their ships to eight, and dispatch a vessel each [every] week. These emigrants are mostly German, [a] few English, for the vessels touch at Southampton, [and] nearly all above the common laboring class. [Many] of them have means, from $300 to $500 and up[wards]; they are either artisans or small farmers, and [many] of them are experienced grape growers."

[The] following is a portion of a circular issued in May, by the Board of Managers of the Union: "The [Internationa]l Emigrant Union," organized in this city in [Octo]ber, 1868, for the purpose of encouraging a larger [emigra]tion from Europe via Baltimore, and give all pos[sible aid] to emigrants, has established its head[quarte]rs at No. 5½ North street. A Bureau of Lands [has been] opened for the purpose of ascertaining the lo[cation] of lands, the product, value, distance to market, [facil]ity to rail or navigation, where lands of this [State] and of the Southern and Western States can be [had], where lands owned by railroads and other com[panies can] be offered to emigrants at low rates.

[This] enterprise is one in which every citizen in this [and] our sister States is interested, and we desire not [only] our approbation, but your active aid and co-opera[tion in] efforts to open the way for a vast influx of a [class] of emigrants from Europe (particularly from [Germany]) who will, by their thrift and enterprise, add [to the] wealth of [illegible] at large. With this view, we so[licit] answers to the following inquiries, assuring [you that the] information we may thus derive will be of [great] service to our Union, and eventually benefit [illegible].

[The] information we gather will be at once translated [and pr]inted in German language, and forwarded to our [General] Agent and Superintendent in Germany, and by [him distr]ibuted where it will prove most advantageous.

1.—What is the general character of the land in [your] [illegible]? Under this head is included soil and [its] agriculture and horticulture, and facilities for [illegible].

2.—What is the nature of the climate in your sec[tion], especially with reference to health.

3.—Do you know of any lands in your vicinity [that mig]ht be [offered] to emigrants at low figures? If so, [state] terms, what area, where located and names of [owners], distance from navigable streams, seaport or rail[road].

4.—[What] facilities for mechanics, carpenters, farm [hands, and] laborers of all kinds, male and female.

5.—What are the facilities for education in your [section]? Number of schools, churches, denominations, [etc.]

6.—What are the rates of pay to laborers of all [kinds], male and female?

7.—What number of Germans are located in your [section]?

[We earnest]ly ask an early response to the foregoing [and] would like to receive any other informa[tion] [illegible] conducive to the objects of our [Union].

[The Bureau] of Lands and Labor will be under the [charge] of Capt. John H. Schulten, who will, with the [aid of] Mr. S. P. Blumenthal, solicit membership for our [Union], which must in a great degree, depend for its [success] upon the voluntary contributions of [its friends], in the form of memberships.

[We invi]te the co-operation of all in this great work, [which we] trust it will befriend the stranger arriving at [our] [illegible] it will ultimately be of great bene[fit to al]l of our country."

[Mr.] [illegible], the General Agent for the United States, [will spend] some days in our city and for some days [in] the State, and will be glad to receive, during [his stay], communications on the various matters in [which the] Union is interested.

WALLA ITEMS.—The Walla Walla Union of the [illegible] "Arrangements are fast [ma]king to erect a new [illegible] about half a mile below town, for custom [illegible] daily, men coming in from all the northern [mines]. [Some] of these have a fair supply of filthy lucre, [others] seem to be suffering from impecuniosity. The [illegible] this [illegible] has been light, owing to the [illegible] arriving to town, daily, large quanti[ties of] fruit, both for home consumption and ship[ment] [illegible] are sent to Portland, [and] fair returns after paying all expenses. Wagons [leave] daily for all the many mining camps and in[terior] [illegible] north and east of us, with apples, [peaches] and grapes of the very finest quality, [which] has been generally good this year, and will [bring con]siderable cash into the pockets of our fruit [growers].

[illegible] g items are from the Statesman: [illegible] to Montana and the different min[ing camps] has been so reduced that the stock of flour [is] lower than at any period during the past two [years]. [There] is now quite an active demand for the mining [camps] from all parts of the country, arrive here [illegible] with the least possible delay, going out [illegible] produce for the different [camps]. At no time within the past five years [has] Walla Walla been as healthy as at pres[ent]. [Nor] was the same [illegible] felt in the per[iod] [illegible] of the place.

[illegible] Jordan & Co. are now shipping [illegible] from below to meet the demands of their [trade]. A very large amount of pork was cured in [illegible] the last season, but such has been the [demand] that our butchers [illegible] are com[pelled to ship] from below. The figures that now rule are [illegible] 25 cents [illegible]; sides, 18c; shoulders, [illegible].

[illegible] Our sanctum was honored yesterday by [a visit from] The President Colfax and Mr. Bowles, of the [Springfield] [illegible]. It is [illegible] thing in a lifetime to [illegible] visits from editors so distinguished as [these], one of whom has been through every grade in a [career] from Devil to Chief, and now worthily [holds] [illegible] in the gift of the nation; the other, the [Chief] of one of the very first journals in the [land], [illegible] world-wide celeb[rity] [illegible] of what they once were and what [they] are, we feel much as did St. Paul when, on a [journey] he came in sight of three taverns—[illegible] and took courage, not to be a whit be[hind] [illegible]. Life is so uncertain, and fate so [illegible], and man can so little know what may hap[pen], [illegible] we feel admonished to be in readiness [illegible] may befall—editors have risen to posi[tion] [illegible], why may it not happen again?

[illegible] that [illegible] Blanchet has purchased ground [for the] site of a school building at McMinnville.

[illegible] have [commen]ced cutting stone for the U. S. [illegible] building.

[illegible] day, four cases of assault and battery [were held] for hearing. In two of the cases fines [were imposed], one discharged, and one continued.

[illegible] for laying the N[illegible] [illegible] on [illegible] commenced, yesterday, to lay down the [illegible], on the first secti[on] beyond Morrison [illegible].

[illegible] of Lee & Ryland's circus—one now [illegible] in Washington Territory and the other in [illegible] to be consolidated, and the combination [will be] at Salem during the State Fair.

STEAMBOAT SKEDADDLE.—The Victoria Colonist [of] the subjoined account of a steamboat slope. "The steamer Veruna has been libelled by Cap[tain] [illegible] of Port Orchard. It is charged that she was [illegible] of by Captain Spaulding, who [is the] true captain overboard and steered the ves[sel] [illegible]. The steamer, it is further al[leged], was in the custody of the Court of Bank[ruptcy] [at the] time of the skedaddle; the Judge of the [illegible] Court was preparing to come aboard and his [illegible] was already aboard, was carried off and landed [illegible] a mile and a half distant from Port Orchard. [illegible] was obtained at Port Townsend. Taken all [together] the case is the liveliest we have known since the [illegible] of the steamer Alexandra to the American [illegible], and her subsequent recapture by parties [illegible] side."

[illegible] TRANSACTIONS are becoming frequent, [which is] quite a change for the better. Farming lands [are] [illegible] to move. This is as it should be. [Our] Portland and the State at large were one half [illegible] to change hands. In this way much [illegible] would be made, which in present hands [illegible] be thought of. In this morning's issue, under "New to-day," will be found the advertisement [of] Stitzel & Upton, Real Estate Brokers, corner [Front] and Washington streets. They offer for sale a large amount of desirable city and country prop[erty] [illegible] desiring to invest in property either in Ore[gon] [or] Washington, will do well to give them a call.

[illegible] OF THE COLFAX PARTY.—Vice President Col[fax left] Oregon City yesterday, in company with Sen[ator] [illegible]. The other members of the party remained [in the] city, save that Messrs. Bross and Bowles were [illegible] to the White House in the afternoon, by a par[ty] [illegible], the entire party, accompanied by some of our [citizens], will go up the Columbia to the Dalles and Celilo, [and] will return to-morrow, after which, they will leave [for] return to California, going overland, through [the Will]amette, Umpqua and Rogue river valleys. They [will le]ave Salem on Friday evening, and will stop over the [Sabbat]h at Eugene City.

WHARF AND SEALING REGULATION.—The steamers [carry]ing cargoes from Portland, to Puget Sound and Vic[toria] usually go first to the American ports, to avoid the [illegible] upon goods by the wiring and sealing [illegible]. The Colonist ironically calls the regula[tion] "a beautiful system," and says the arrangement [illegible] work. The other day, the Telfair, from Portland, [made] the round of the Sound ports with Victoria passen[gers] and freight on board, whereat the British Lion roar[ed] with rage. The regulation, really, is an inconveni[ence] both for ourselves and our neighbors, and we [see] no good reason why it should be continued.

[FIRE] AT UNIONTOWN—HEAVY LOSS.—The following was [received] by telegraph from Umatilla, yesterday: "We learn [from a] gentleman down by stage this morning, that a [destruc]tive fire occurred in the evening of the fifth [illegible], resulting in the entire loss of the store of [illegible] & Co., also, livery stable owned by Judge Ar[illegible], besides several buildings belonging to John [illegible]. Great efforts were made by the citizens to save [the c]ity; but as the wind was blowing a perfect [gale], all efforts were [illegible]. Estimate of entire loss [is] $40,000. It is not yet known how the fire origin[ated]."

[illegible].—The Adeline Elwood, from New York, was [in the] [Colum]bia river, under sail for this city, when the [illegible] Taylor came up. She was [illegible] about forty miles [outsi]de of Astoria, on Monday. The bark Almatia was [illegible] from San Francisco. Both were expected to [arrive] last night.

COUNTY COURT—P. A. MARQUAM, JUDGE.—Sept. 7th.—In the matter of the infant Caroline Ellen Fackler, it was ordered that guardianship letters issue to E. D. Shattuck, who has filed a bond as required by law.

Ladd & Tilton vs. J. B. Wallace and L. Besser, suit to recover money, judgment for plaintiffs $106 36 and costs.

Forenoon principally occupied in hearing argument on motion to strike out part of answer in the case of S. O. Alexander vs. Jacob Balt, under advisement.

Adjourned to this morning at 10 A. M.

SEWARD AT SALEM.—Mr. T. McF. Patton, who came down from Salem yesterday, informs us that Mr. Seward returned from Albany on Monday. Last evening he had a reception at the house of Gov. Woods, and to-day, he will have a public reception at the Legislative Hall. Before going to Albany he and a party of gentlemen went over into Polk and paid a visit to Mr. Nesmith. Mr. Seward is much pleased with what he has seen of the Wallamet valley.

AT THE STATE FAIR GROUNDS.—The Farmer says: "Some new buildings have already been erected preparatory for the State Fair."

"The borers of the artesian well on the Fair Grounds have struck a boulder at the depth of about 30 feet, and have been engaged most of the week in drilling into it. It will be completed, if possible, in time for the State Fair."

THEATRICAL AND PERSONAL.—We have a letter from Mr. F. M. Bates, late of Oro Fino Theater, now in San Francisco, in which he says Mrs. Bates is playing an engagement at the Opera House, to a good business. Mr. Bates at present is doing nothing. Times generally pretty dull in the theatrical line, with indications that they will be no better soon.

A FINE STOCK OF GOODS.—Kohn & Fishel are in receipt of, and just now opening, a splendid stock of Goods selected in the San Francisco market by Mr. Chas. Fishel. No such qualities of clothing goods have been brought to this city during the present season. Their fall styles are particularly handsome and the stock large.

T'OTHER SIDERS VS OUR SIDERS.—We learn that the famous Red Stocking Base Ball Club is coming over by the railroad to play a match at San Francisco on the 20th inst., against a picked nine of Pacific coast players. It will doubtless be an interesting and exciting game—to our siders, at least.

TRAIN.—George Francis Train sends us a poster and programme, from which we learn that he was sloshing around at Virginia City, Nevada, the last week of August. He had reached his 75th lecture on the Pacific coast and his mill was still running.

HOSPITALITIES.—Last evening at the close of the reception at Philharmonic Hall, the Washington Guard invited the Infantry band, which had been for several hours on service in the Hall, around to the armory and treated them to refreshments.

THE RECEPTION.—Mr. Colfax had a reception last evening at Philharmonic Hall, on which occasion a large number of our citizens both from city and country, paid their respects to our distinguished visitor.

FOR PUGET SOUND AND VICTORIA.—The steamer Gussie Telfair will sail for the ports of Puget Sound and Victoria on Thursday, 9th inst., at 6 o'clock P. M.

BAD BRIDGES.—Parties who have been out on the Hillsboro road, complain that many of the bridges, a few miles out, are in an unsafe condition.

P. Y. C.—A meeting of the Portland Yacht Club will be held at the Club Room this (Wednesday) evening at 7½ o'clock. Per order of Commodore.

ON DIT.—That a publication is soon to be started in this city, of the character of Mazeppa. We know nothing of the matter, save the rumor.

FOR SAN FRANCISCO.—The steamship Moses Taylor will sail for San Francisco at 6 o'clock P. M., Thursday, 9th inst.

BASE BALL.—A practice game will be played on the grounds at East Portland, at 5 this P. M.

[From the Memphis (Tenn.) Appeal.]

One of the most remarkable leaps ever recorded was made yesterday evening by a negro woman, a passenger on the Memphis bound train, within a few miles of this city. The affair would be incredible (indeed, we can scarcely credit it as it is,) were it not attested by a score or two of passengers, from whom we learn the following particulars of the adventure: A negro woman got on the train at Grand Junction and asked the conductor to put her off at a farm house about ten miles from Memphis. She said she could not remember the place, nor could she describe it that the conductor could recognize it, so he told her to keep a sharp lookout, and let him know when they were approaching it. Thus instructed, the woman took her seat forward and kept her eye skinned for her stopping place. When about twelve miles from town, the conductor started into the rear car, forgetting all about Dinah, let the engineer pull the throttle wide open and come townward "a howling." When he got near the door of the second car, he seated himself beside a passenger and commenced a pleasant chat, from which he was startled by seeing the wench come running aft through the car.

As she passed him and slung open the door, he grabbed at her dress but missed it, and in another second she had reached the platform and jumped off—the train going at lightning speed! The astonished passengers and conductor saw for a moment a confused mass of calico, red brogans and black legs flash in the air, and vanish instantly as the train sped on. The horrified conductor jumped for the bell-rope, and gave a pull that made the engineer jump for the reverse lever and whistle down the brake as if a ninety-car train was coming on a down grade in the opposite direction at sixty miles an hour. To cut a long story short, as soon as possible the train was stopped and backed up to where the "unfortunate colored female" took her leap, as was confidently expected, into eternity, and where they thought to find her mangled remains. But they were mistaken. The remains were found, it is true, but there was not much mangling about them. She was stunned a little, and had a patch of wool knocked off the top of her head, and there was an awful dent in the ground where she hit, but further than this no damage seemed to have been done. The conductor made a couple of hands hustle her into the baggage car, and the train came on to the city. When it reached the depot the woman was "all right," jumped out of the car, and walked off as if nothing had happened.

The Italian journals announce the publication at Trieste of a translation of Dante's Inferno into Hebrew. The author who has undertaken to render into the language of Ezekiel the solemn accents of the great Florentine, is Chevalier Formigine. The general reader may suppose this enterprise is unique in its kind, but the fact is that many modern works have been translated in the same manner from Hamlet to Telemachus. The British Museum possesses a translation of The Mysteries of Paris in Hebrew.

The first volume of Egypt and the Book of Moses, by Prof. Ebers, has just been published in Leipsic. It is a work which exhibits great scholarship, and throws a new light on the customs, observances and character of the ancient Hebrews, as we find them set forth in the Pentateuch.

WEDNESDAY MORNING SEPT 8, 1869.

The Right to Labor

The New York Times observes that the position assumed in regard to colored laborers by the National Labor Congress which recently held its session at Philadelphia, is at once a rebuke and a warning to the leaders of the Northern Democracy. The majority of the delegates were evidently in general fellowship with the Democratic party. Several of the resolutions adopted are identical in purpose with its policy; and on yet other points the Congress propounded views more or less antagonistic to the mass of Republican opinion.

On an important practical question, however, the Congress with singular unanimity adopted a course at variance with the Democratic estimate of the negro, his capacity and status. Complete equality was conceded him and a bond of union formed from which considerations of color were rigidly excluded. Not only were colored delegates admitted without hesitation, but they were allowed to participate actively in the proceedings. They were appointed to committees, were recognized as the equals of the white delegates in everything, and in some instances wielded an influence which reflected credit on their capacity and intelligence. Nor was this all. In laying the foundations of the alliance of labor, distinctions originating in race or color were discarded. Black and white entered into a league and covenant for the promotion of their common interests. Indeed, the Congress, in the most emphatic manner, affirmed its recognition of the social and industrial results of emancipation, and its determination to tolerate no discrimination on account of color in matters involving the rights and claims of the worker.

True, the Congress pronounced no opinion on the strictly political aspect of the negro question. But its action was nevertheless conclusive. The Democratic opposition to negro enfranchisement rests upon the alleged unfitness of the colored people for the highest duties of citizenship, and upon some supposed antagonism of interest and feeling between white and black labor. On both points the trades' delegates have al[illegible] to the [illegible] held by the Republican party. For, having accorded to colored delegates the right to discuss and to assist in determining propositions which are offered as the [illegible] of legislation, there can be [illegible] this quarter no further objection to colored [illegible]. The race which is qualified to take an active part in a labor Congress at Philadelphia cannot be denied the privilege of voting for representatives to sit in the larger Congress at Washington. The workingmen of the country therefore separate themselves from the Democratic party, and silently concede the justice of the Republican demand for an equality of rights.

In Gen[illegible]

The London Times renews its cheerful assurance to the Provincials over here that they are big [illegible] and strong enough to go alone. Let them [illegible] Prince Arthur for King and go into [illegible] on their own account. Perhaps if there was a real Court on this Continent it might draw off the [illegible] flunkies and thus relieve our own society to some extent.

The Pittsburg [illegible] says that the Boys in Blue of Pennsylvania will invite their comrades from every State in the Union to assemble in that city some time in September, to consider some of the "dead issues," and it promises that every corps, brigade and regiment which ever rallied around the old flag shall be fully represented there, from every State, and under almost every distinguished leader.

D[illegible] in mines, similar to that of which an account is given in our dispatches to-day, are happening of late with alarming frequency. The terrible catastrophe by fire in the mine at Gold Hill, Nevada, is still freshly remembered. Only a short time ago there was a similar calamity in Germany, by which three hundred lives were lost. Considering the [illegible] which continually exist in mining operations, there is probably more carelessness in them than in any other occupation in which men [illegible]. Thousands of lives are continually in jeopardy, and yet it is often the case that no [illegible] precautions are taken [illegible] would be observed in employments where the hazard was deemed nothing at all.

Senator Sherman, of Ohio, in a recent speech in that State, expressed the opinion that internal taxation can soon be further reduced. He said that the taxes on whisky, tobacco and incomes, if properly collected, are in his judgment amply sufficient to cover the [illegible] expenditures of the Government—interest on the debt alone excepted. All other internal taxes, he thinks, may soon be repealed. The tariff, he hopes, will bring enough to provide for interest on the debt and leave a surplus for its regular reduction. These anticipations are not unreasonable. We may expect a pretty thorough re-adjustment of the taxes during the coming session of Congress.

Judge Kelly on Oregon and Washington Territory.

No doubt our readers will be glad to learn what our visitors who have come out to see us this summer are disposed to say about us and our country after they return home. We have the Philadelphia Press of August 27th, which contains a long account by Judge Kelley (one of the Congressional Committee of Ways and Means) of what he saw during his trip to the Pacific coast. After speaking of the favors extended to the party by Mr. Holladay, the O. S. N. Co., and others, by which the party was enabled to go to all points they had time to visit, Judge Kelley proceeded to talk of Oregon and Washington. He said:

Expecting to find along the coast some a[illegible] of temperature to our own, we ascertained that in Oregon and Washington (lying between the forty-second and forty-ninth parallels of latitude) the people make no provisions for housing their cattle during the winter, and that they require none, because the average temperature of Olympia on the forty-seventh parallel, is that of the winter temperature of Norfolk, Va. West of the Cascade mountains, the region of Oregon and Washington Territories presented to the early settlers an unbroken forest of magnificent evergreens. Among them the fir tree shoots up, as a common thing, to the height of 250 feet, often attaining 300 feet. Going ashore at points around Puget Sound, we found that trees whose diameter was from nine to twelve feet were almost as numerous as those of smaller proportions. California, however, is destitute of timber, but not absolutely without trees, for around San Francisco there are stunted oaks, whose equal distances from each other are indicated by a regularity and exactness that might lead one to suppose that he was passing through orchards. The trees, both in size and contour, resemble the gnarled apple trees of our own section. So, too, there are narrow strips of wood along watercourses, but none of them deserve the name of timber.

Of the future cities of the Pacific coast Judge Kelley said:

My impression is that San Francisco will, in course of time, cease to be the great city of the Pacific coast. Her location at present constitutes her the entrepot for all the commerce of the coast, embracing the trade from the South American coast, from the Sandwich Islands, from China, British Columbia, and our own territory north of that city. The bay of San Francisco, too, is quite capable of accommodating the commerce of the world. It is, I think, unequalled in extent, beauty and safety. Then the city has made most magnificent strides; she has her dry-dock, her ample wharves, her steam tugs, her coast defences, and has made very considerable progress in manufactures. But, notwithstanding all these advantages, my firm impression is that the great city of the Pacific coast will have its location on or near the waters of Puget Sound.

The Judge went on to say that the first impression on the mind of every intelligent traveler on reaching this country is one of surprise and astonishment upon discovering so much that was unexpected, and of which no measure of reading, of correspondence, or of intercourse with the people of that section had previously given the observer any adequate idea. The conditions of soil and climate are so widely at variance with all to which we have been accustomed as to render them deserving of our special consideration and study." He continued:

Here are to be found in abundance, timber, coal, iron, fish, wheat, all domestic grasses, the potato, apple, pear, plum, and through more than half the year all the fruits known to our own tables.

* * * * * * *

Up to the point which formed the northern boundary of our country to Alaska, the change of season is unknown. During the winter the rains are very frequent, but they also have their summer rains, and speak of different periods as the dry and wet seasons. The coolness of the nights is unfavorable to the maturing of Indian corn, peaches and grapes, yet in well sheltered spots in the valley the people raise all these articles for family use.

Of the Chinese labor Judge Kelley said:

Our commerce with China is increasing with marvellous rapidity, and is already of the most profitable character. At the same time our Western territory is made up of immense, almost incalculable, tracts of valuable, but uncultivated land, of unopened mines, of undeveloped fisheries, and of almost every other possible source of wealth and employment for human industry. We are burdened with a debt which, told in figures, startles us by its magnitude, but which, when considered in comparison with our resources, is scarcely worthy of serious concern. Undertakings which promise hundreds, and, in many instances, thousands per cent. return are open to enterprise on every part of the Pacific coast. They are not initiated, because the labor essential to their proper execution cannot be had. But, as I have already said, China is effectually disposing of this great want by sending us, in gradually increasing numbers, an able-bodied, intelligent, ingenious, temperate, docile, laborious people—taking back to the East, as return cargoes, the productions of this same people upon our own shores. As yet, however, China is not sending them to us so rapidly as to justify apprehensions of alarm among the laboring population of the Atlantic slope, or to substantiate, to any considerable extent, the assumptions of intelligent writers on the subject.

The Judge's remarks on the general features, resources and prospects of the northern coast were continued at [illegible] length, filling six closely printed columns in the Press. He thought it not worth while at present to trouble ourselves about the acquisition of British Columbia, remarking that,—

No additional territory would be worth a contest necessitating an outlay of money. We want peace, prosperity, and a steady increase of population; and with these our debts will disappear under a gradual and constantly diminishing scale of taxation. Therefore, I say unhesitatingly that British Columbia would not be worth a contest. The country is beautiful and valuable, and will come to us at no distant day, as a ripe apple falls to the ground. Our own action, however, may have much to do with hastening or retarding the coming of that day. The people of British Columbia are as anxious to unite their destinies with ours as are the people of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, and from the same cause. They realize their own want of prosperity, and contrast it with the immense progress we are making. As for loyalty to England, that may be a pretty thing to talk about, but four out of every five residents of British Columbia who originally emigrated directly from England are ready to become citizens of the United States by the annexation of their country. Many of the people have lived in this country, in the various mining districts, and are anxious to get back by the process of annexation. And my judgment is that it would be as great a folly to accept the British possessions by way of a settlement of any claim which our Government may have against England as it would be to go to war for the acquisition of the territory. If any destiny is manifest, it is that that portion of the country upon the Atlantic and Pacific coasts will come to us, at no distant day, by the choice and acts of its own people.

THE WEST.

The California State Agricultural Fair is in progress at Sacramento this week.

A Victoria paper tells of a mackerel caught near that place which weighed 34 pounds.

Our Nevada exchanges are enthusiastic in their accounts of recent "beautiful atmospheric phenomena."

The Alaska Times says there are only six hundred inhabitants in Sitka, all told, yet there are sixty bar-rooms and two breweries.

Californians are alarmed at the report that Frank Blair is going to locate at San Francisco, as agent for a Missouri insurance company.

The Sacramento Union asks Gov. Haight if he "does not know that a Democratic Legislature in 1852 voted in favor of coolie importation as a benefit to California, and a needed supply of labor?"

The Yreka Journal says that at the next general election in California there will be the greatest reaction in favor of the Republican party ever known, from the fact that the China scare will be dead and buried.

The Hawaiian Islands papers give detailed accounts of the reception of the Duke of Edinburg (Queen Victoria's son) in the ship Galatea, which he commands. The Galatea left the Islands on the 30th of July for Japan.

The Port Townsend paper says: Some twelve Indians were poisoned at Port Discovery a few days ago from eating muscles gathered in that harbor—two of them died, the well known buck, Jimmy Ducks, and one squaw.

A strong whirl wind passed through Hamilton, August 28th, from the direction of Treasure Mountain, blowing down the new house of the Hook and Ladder Company, and the frame of the Dayton mill, situated about two miles below town, and wounding two men seriously.

Casserly's ticket having been exposed, says the Sacramento Union, and his attempt to show that only twelve States have ratified the Fifteenth Amendment proved abortive, the Democracy are again in the dumps. If they cannot have the Amendment to fight what shall they d[illegible]

Dakota Territory will soon be knocking at the doors of the Union. Villages are said to be springing up there rapidly. More than 5,000 persons emigrated to the Territory this summer. The present population is reckoned at 20,000 and 17,000 acres of land have lately been taken up under the homestead and pre-emption laws by actual settlers.

The San Francisco Times states that Senator Schurz refused to make political speeches, not because he was the guest of the Germans of both parties, as has been erroneously stated, but because he came here on official business, and the Democrats and Republicans of the Retrenchment Committee had mutually agreed not to take part in our local politics, and so had paired off with each other to that end.

A Washington Territory paper states that "a young couple anxious for the bands of Hymen, came over on the last trip of the steamer Anderson from Victoria, and were greatly put out when they were informed that they would have to be residents of the Territory some three months before they could get a marriage license, they continued their trip up Sound on their way to Oregon, expecting the authorities in that State will deal with them more kindly.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

Marysville Dispatch.

MARYSVILLE, Sept 7.—The Board of Supervisors are recounting the entire vote on the demand of Upham, Republican Assemblyman. Votes half canvassed and Upham 10 behind the lowest Democratic opponent. The canvass will be concluded to-morrow.

Stockton Dispatch.

STOCKTON, Sept 7.—The first through train from Alameda arrived here at noon to day. It was composed of three coaches, with a fair complement of passengers. A large number of ladies and gentlemen were assembled at the depot to meet the train on its arrival. Passengers speak in high praise of the condition of the road. San Francisco morning papers, of this date, were received by the same train. The characteristic enterprise of the Alta was exhibited to day in the person of its proprietor, A. McCrellish, Esq., who was first to hand to their agent in this city a copy of this morning's issue. Other San Francisco dailies were received by the same train.

Hon C A Eldridge, member of Congress, from Wisconsin, arrived from the Yosemite to day, and leaves for Sacramento on the morning train.

In the recount of the county vote by the Board of Supervisors, the 1st and 2d Wards of the city only have been counted, and no change can be found in the tally list.

CARLIN, Sept. 7.—Six fine horses, belonging to a firm at San Francisco, passed here to-day on the cars. They are shipping them from San Francisco to Boston. The stock was in fine condition, and stood the trip thus far well.

BY STATE TELEGRAPH.

OREGON CITY, Sept. 7.—Hon. Schuyler Colfax in company with Hon. H. W. Corbett paid our town a short visit this afternoon. They arrived here overland at half past one and returned by steamer Alert at 4:15 P.M.

GENERAL NEWS ITEMS.

Robert Toombs, who has given up the idea of calling his roll of slaves on Bunker Hill, is going to Lake Superior for his health.

The Egyptian Viceroy had 144 overcoats made in Paris for wear in Egypt, where the winters are very severe—so says one of our ex[illegible]. Cuba would fur[illegible] good market for that tailor and a good item for that paper.

The Springfield Republican calls for new temperance reform. It says the attempt to carry on the case by political and legal machinery is a lamentable failure, and it asks ministers to preach, teachers to teach, and all good people to labor in behalf of it.

Interviewing great men on the part of the correspondents has been copied by those most imitative of all people, the Chinese. No less a personage than Count Bismarck has lately been interviewed by a correspondent of the Flying Dragon, a Chinese journal.

The Hon John Forsyth, who edits the Mobile Register, has taken to writing very wicked nonsense. The late election in Alabama having resulted in a manner which does not please him, he calls upon the people of that State to get ready for another rebellion.

The newspapers of North Carolina are much exercised on the question of suitable name for the new party which seems to be forming in the South. One suggests the name of "Constitutional Liberals," another "Liberal Republican," and another still, "Liberal."

The Perry Monument Association propose a grand meeting at Put in Bay on the 10th of September, the anniversary of the battle of Lake Erie, the primary object of which is to raise additional funds for the monument. One of the survivors of the battle will deliver the oration.

The Portland Argus, the leading Democratic paper in Maine, suggests that its party vote solidly for their regular candidate for Governor this year, and next year unite with Conservative Republicans for the purpose of electing a Conservative Governor, and re-electing Mr. Fessenden to the Senate.

The New York Star thinks that Mr Bigelow, the new editor of the Times, ought to cherish the memory of apoplexy, as he has twice profited by its attack—once being elevated to the post of Minister to France, on the death of Mr. Dayton, and now succeeding Mr. Raymond, who died of the same disease.

However the refusal of General Rosecrans to bear their standard may affect the prospects of the Ohio Democracy, it is at all events evident that it saves them from an embarrassing position. The school question, to which we have already referred, was becoming unpleasantly prominent and causing the Democrats no little annoyance.

Portland.

[From the Forest Grove Monthly.]

There always have been those among the people of the Valley who delight in maligning Portland, evidently, believing that the prosperity of the city has been at the expense of the country. This belief has been as senseless as the feeling has been mean.

What would all the productiveness of the Valley avail if there were no market. A market cannot be found without the commercial class who make the hunting up and supply of markets their business.

The farmers have been at perfect liberty to do without the commercial class, both in selling wheat and buying their necessaries, but they have preferred to employ them, and have voluntarily used Portland business men.

The business men of Portland have been the means of making the productiveness of our valley available to our people, and they should receive credit for so doing.

Their interests have been, and are essentially, the interests of the Valley. The merchant is just as essential to the farmer as the farmer is to the merchant, and for the one to rail against the other is like the absurd complaint of the belly against the limbs in the fable.

Each may fail in attending to its own interests, and so suffer itself, and inflict injury on the other. Such oversight or neglect is fairly a subject of comment. In order that such criticism should be effective it should be founded upon a just estimate of the regulations of each. It should recognize the true function of each member of the social body, and criticise accordingly. That the farmers have neglected the proper development of the agricultural interests of the State is as patent as the merchants have been without public spirit; and that farmers of Oregon have shown industry, skill and enterprise, can no more be denied than that merchants and steamboat men have taken comprehensive views and pushed out with intrepidity upon legitimate ventures. The law of business is, that in every department men shall seek by honest and shrewd means their own interests, and so the harmony and success of all be best secured. Let us submit to this law, and so agriculture, commerce and manufactures, each employing its fraction of energy and talent, best subserve the interest of all other labors.

THE REBEL PIRATE TALLAHASSEE.—God's mill grinds slow, but it grinds woe. The steamer Haya-maro, which was recently lost on her trip from Yokohama to Shanghai, was the old rebel pirate Tallahassee, which under Capt Wardell burned the pilot-boat Isaac Webb off the eastern end of Long Island and created havoc among the fishing boats on the banks of Newfoundland during the rebellion. We opine that the news of the destruction of this vessel will give satisfaction to the sense of outraged justice that was shared in throughout the North when this and other piratical craft succeeded in destroying so many of our vessels with impunity. Yet we cannot but grieve at the loss of life attendant upon her destruction. It is said she was making her very best time from Yokohama, sailing close to the coast, when she struck a rock with such force as to tear her bottom from stem to stern, and down she plunged under the waters, dragging some twenty or more souls to eternity with scarcely a moment's warning. Captain Hill and five European passengers were among the lost. One boat only cleared itself from the sinking steamer, and in this a few survivors managed to save themselves.

Brigham Young's eldest son is in New Haven. His business is to negotiate, on behalf of his father, for the building of several cars to be used on the branch from the Pacific Railroad to Salt Lake City. The New Haven Palladium says:

"Before he had been in the city two hours he had received a number of invitations to dine out, and it is understood that the freedom of more than one private mansion had been tendered him. He is accompanied by his favorite wife, a young lady of very agreeable manners and charming physique. For the benefit of the ladies we will add that her toilette is in the latest style, and of the best manufacture."
